

CITY GARDENS CONTEST

Karabots Junior Fellows Program Latresa Copes and Kids

Kudos to the Karabots kids! These high school students spent the school year researching medicinal herbs, then cleared the 100 year old ivy from the courtyard and finally planted and cared for the garden. Signage throughout provides an educational opportunity for visitors. Plants are labeled as to where they originated and what ailments they were thought to cure.

First Place

Community Children's Garden