The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse a copying or reproduction order, if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law. The user is responsible for conforming to the laws of libel, publicity rights, and copyright, which may be involved in the use of these materials. Fair use under the Copyright Act may be found in §107.

College use only: One-time publication rights are hereby conferred to the User named above, subject to the manner set forth above and the TERMS AND CONDITIONS described in this Agreement and incorporated by reference herein.
